Dear All,

The mellow season of autumn is a good time for thinking about all sorts of changes which take place in life, not least the ripening of fruits, the gradual dying back of vegetation and the cooling of the air around us.

It is no accident that the beginning of November is used in church tradition for the commemoration not only of all the holy people who have gone before us and set us an example of the Christian life in the feast of All Saints, but for the commemoration of all those we have lost from our own lives, in the feast of All Souls. This year there will be a special service at 3pm on Sunday 3rd November in St Andrew's church, Kirkby Malzeard at which those who have lost loved ones, however long ago, will be invited to take part in prayer and reflection. I lost my own Father, peacefully and at a great age, a few weeks ago at this time of the turning of the year, and so for me and my family the reflections this year will be especially poignant.

It is of course a coincidence that it was also, at this time of year, that World War I came to an end, and as a result, November is a time when we remember all those who have served in, lost their lives in, or been harmed as a result of both that war and all the wars which have happened since. This year we are witnessing a significant increase of warfare across the world, affecting many people terribly and directly, and creating anxiety even for us who live so far away from the action itself. In addition, we continue to see the effects of climate change: no hurricanes have yet swept across the Fountains Benefice, but flash flooding has revealed weaknesses in road systems, causing both significant inconvenience and further anxiety. By the time most of you read this, the American election will have taken place, another event which will be bringing unknown changes and worry about the future.

It is easy in all this for a loss of morale and a sort of collective depression to creep over our lives. But I want to end with two reflections. Even a cursory study of history will reveal that turmoil and anxiety were the default positions of most people in most eras, and if they managed to get on with their lives as best they could, so can we. Secondly, many people in the past put their faith in God, not to make their lives easier, but to guarantee them after death the life of resurrection through Christ, whatever had gone before. Many still do so today, and even if it's the only hope, it's the best one we are offered and a wonderful one indeed. I pray that my Father may be destined for that resurrection, and that all those others we have lost may be so too.

A Service of Remembrance and Thanksgiving for those who have died

Every 2-3 years we hold a special service in the benefice to remember those whom we have lost, and to offer friends and families a formal space to give thanks for their lives and also to grieve. This year it will take place on Sunday 3rd November, at 3pm, in St Andrew's, Kirkby Malzeard.

At this service we will be remembering all those who have died during the last three years or so, and especially those whose funerals have taken place in any of the churches of the Fountains Benefice, or who have lived in our villages. It will also offer us a chance to remember those known to us personally who have died in years gone by and whom we still love and miss. There will be A4 sheets in all the churches in the fortnight beforehand on which the names of deceased loved ones to be remembered can be added.

The service will include readings, a couple of hymns, some prayers and an opportunity to light a candle in memory of our loved ones. The names of those we wish to commemorate will be read out. A small ministry team will be on hand to speak to or pray with, should you wish.

If you would like us to remember someone by name at the service, but you cannot attend, please let Revd Andrew Cromarty know in advance (07717 226791 or at andrew.cromarty@leeds.anglican.org)

Praying for our benefice

Prayer is crucial for everything we do; so we meet to pray for the life of our villages and our churches on the first Saturday of most months.

Everyone is welcome to come and share this time – it doesn't matter if you've not prayed with others before, and if you're not confident in praying aloud no one is going to make you do so! God hears silent prayers as well as those that are spoken out loud.

We will meet for prayer again at 9.30 am on Saturday 2nd November, at The Rectory in Kirkby Malzeard. Light breakfast is available. We would love others to commit to this important time. See you there! The next prayer breakfast will be on Saturday 7th December.

Benefice Book Group

This month we have very much enjoyed reading "The Book of Beginnings" by Sally Page. A long and complex novel, it is concerned with human relationships at many levels and the ways in which they develop.

Only a few of the settings are described in detail but a very clear picture is presented in a few words, as is the case in the stationery shop which Jo, the central character, is looking after for her uncle.

Parts of the novel are very much concerned with Highgate Cemetery; the ease with which we come to know in detail some of those buried there must have involved painstaking research. All of us shared Jo's love of beautiful paper and elegant fountain pens and it was fascinating to see how she changed the stock while she was in charge.

All of this is peripheral, however, to the changing and developing relationships. A happy ending? We can only strongly advise you to read "A Book of Beginnings" and see for yourselves. It will make you think.

Our next month's read will be "Monsieur Linh and His Child" by Phillipe Claudel.

Girlguiding Fountains

It's been another busy month for our units as we have all looked at the 'reflect' skill builder. The Rainbows enjoyed a sleepover at Hazel House, spending time in a magical forest leading to activities. They also created a tree picture, which now hangs in the Church Room in Winksley. The girls enjoyed a creative evening exploring pendulum painting and have worked on fitness.

We are sad to say good luck and farewell to Bea, albeit temporarily, who has worked with the Rainbows since lockdown. She has been an incredible asset to the unit and has brought lots of ideas. We wish her well as she begins her university course and look forward to her return for sleepovers and holiday events.

The Brownies have visited the Nidderdale unit to share in a special evening learning about hedgehogs from the Happy Hedgehogs and Small Animal Rescue. The girls held baby hedgehogs and discovered how we can help the species to survive. Fitness has also been important; Ripon Martial Arts visited to develop fitness and give some tips for self-defence. This was enjoyed by all the Brownies and was certainly an active session.

Creativity and recycling were brought together as the girls designed crazy golf courses; however, the best part was trying them out.

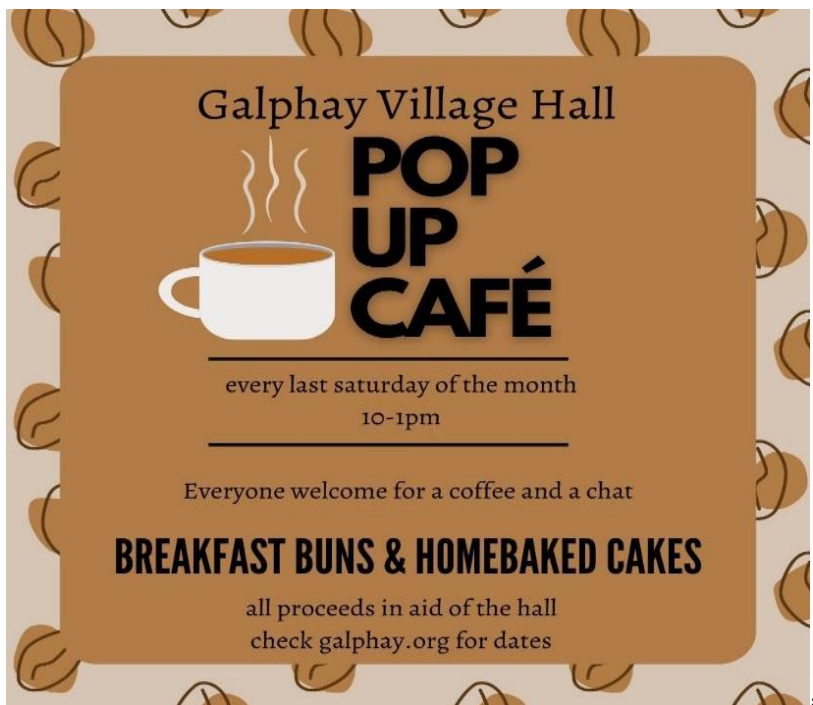

The Guides have held an outdoor cook session, producing a 2-course meal, which they all enjoyed. A variety of games and activities have continued with some highlights being

- a visit to the Harrogate climbing wall, where all the girls managed the tricky assents and developed skill to build on in the future. The guides were complimented on their politeness and the encouragement they gave to others.
- an escape room challenge, created by Alex, their leader. The girls solved puzzles and riddles, found mystery items and completed challenges in an attempt to escape from a themed room. What a meeting! The Guides made it to the end with minutes to spare, saving the day.

If you know of any girls or adults who would like further information or join us, please contact Beth Lockwood 0785559324 riponwestdistrict@outlook.com

Also in November we are hosting yet another fantastic Rural Arts event. This time we are privileged and excited to host Christine Tassan et Les Imposteures at the hall.

Christine Tassan et Les Imposteurs are visiting the UK from Quebec, Canada. Christine Tassan and her quartet are bringing their special blend of Gypsy jazz and revisited cover songs to a handful of lucky rural venues across the north of England and one of them is Grantley! It's been 20 years now since the Imposteurs started making their mark around the world. Reminiscing about this incredibly rich and adventure-filled journey the musicians came up with the concept of taking the audience with them, on the road during their tours, through magnificent landscapes and delightful anecdotes. Get ready for the ascent of the Great Wall of China, a bike ride in Stanley Park in Vancouver, crossing the Rockies in a snowstorm, and visiting Samois-sur-Seine, Django Reinhardt's village.

Kirkby Malzeard C of E Primary School

The first half of the Autumn term has been packed with a wide range of exciting activities for the pupils at Kirkby Malzeard School.

Key Stage 1 were excited to take part in the Wild Workshops when they did an immersive session to learn about animals and their habitats and spent time foraging around the school grounds to find resources to make a home for a mouse. While the weather was so good Year 6 took to the village street as part of Bikeability, a government national training programme. The aim of the course is to teach cycling skills to equip young people with confidence to ride safely on today's roads.

On Thursday 10th October pupils thoroughly embraced World Mental Health Day by wearing something yellow and donating money to Young Minds. Right now the world is a really tough place for children and young people to grow up in. Young Minds want young people to know that they don't have to go through this alone and Kirkby Malzeard school wants to be part of this and stand brighter, together.

Recently a team of pupils from Year 5 and 6 participated in a Netball Tournament. They were absolutely brilliant and managed to achieve second place; they played with such energy and enthusiasm and so we are so proud of all of them. Well done everyone.

At our harvest festival Cedar Class shared their learning and research about the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (RABI). This charity is very important to us as a school due to the many farming families that make up our community. We have chosen to support this charity this harvest and instead of bringing in tinned goods we asked families to donate money.

The school is welcoming prospective parents to visit this term as part of our 'open term'. Prospective parents are invited to book a tour of the school on a day and time convenient to them. Come along and see for yourself how the school gained such an excellent OFSED report in 2023 when they found that 'Pupils love coming to the school. Pupils are happy and safe in this nurturing environment and treat one another with a high level of respect. The school is calm and classes have a working 'hum as pupils focus on their learning'.

For more information about the school please email: admin@kirkbymalzeard.n-yorks.sch.uk or call: 01765 658329 or follow us on @KirkbyMSchool to see lots of other amazing learning opportunities for our children.

You can also learn more about the school on our website:
<http://www.kirkbymalzeard.n-yorks.sch.uk>

We currently have a vacancy on our Governing Body for a new school governor. This is a very rewarding role and the time given is hugely appreciated by the school. Please contact the school by email or phone to find out more details.

Kirkby Malzeard Preschool

The children have well and truly settled in. This half-term the children are looking at colours, doing different activities then moving on to autumn colours, looking at the change in how colours relate to the changing seasons... autumn and Halloween.

We still have some spaces for children from 18 months to 4 years. For more information or to book a viewing please contact preschool on 01765 658080.

Our infamous jumble sale is back on Saturday 23rd November at St Andrews Church 10am till 12.30pm - donation bags will be through your doors soon and donations will be collected from your gate from 9am on Friday 22nd November. If you would like any more information or are out of the village and would like a collection please contact preschool on the number above.

We are also having a stall at the St Andrews Community Fair on 30th November so please pop along and support your local charity committee-run preschool. To further raise funds, we are hosting The Solway Saxophone Quartet on Sunday 8th December (see following poster).

Mickley's nature notes for September

What a year..... the butterflies at last got going in September with red admirals, peacocks, small tortoiseshells, meadow browns and brimstone appearing, as was the constant visitor all summer, the large and small whites! So glad to see them. The moth recorder remains very happy with 2 increasingly rare species appearing here.

The other group that has been a bit quiet are the birds. Our garden birds i.e. tits, robins etc., have had a very long holiday only returning home in the last half of September after their moulting break. The goldfinches are having a great time on the scabious seeds, the woodpecker is still attacking the ants, the tits are doing their acrobatic moves when getting the fly nests from various parts of the buildings.

Meanwhile the dragonflies and damsel flies have been prolific over our pond, (and at the local nature reserve so the hobbies have been busy!).

The return of rain has cheered many plants up, with the heat and drought of August and early September having challenged a number of plants. So those still flowering rudbeckia, echinacea, persicarias, nepeta etc. look very happy.

We put geotextile over our brassicas to protect them vs the dreaded white butterflies (who have been as prolific as usual this summer, unlike the others). They also have drip irrigation so have been steadily watered during the dry periods. Having just removed the textile covers, they look spectacular, no white or black fly, caterpillars or pigeon attack (yet!). So, although it has looked a bit odd with white domes in the veg patch it has worked. The -2 degree frost in early September was a bit of a shock but the courgettes and french beans coped being in a sheltered area. However they have not survived the frosts of early October nor have the runner beans.

A disaster happened with our old apple tree. Given the huge number of apples this year, one of the main branches gave up the ghost and landed on the lawn spilling hundreds of apples everywhere. We then discovered that the local delivery drivers liked taking the windfalls. Wonderful, as everyone in Mickley also have too many apples.

Sawley Moor Lane Diary – Looking back

July and August

How enjoyable July and August have been, frequent sunny days, some quite hot, a splattering of rain often at the most inconvenient times, but something has been missing ... the whole network of insect and small invertebrate life. WHERE HAS IT ALL GONE? Is it just me who can't see the numbers of hoverflies, bees, butterflies etc that used to fill my summer days? Is there a collapse in that whole tier of life or am I imagining it?

Our swallows returned to their nest in the porch; she sat for several weeks, he perched on the wires in the lane and then they gave up. No eggs, no hatching for them. We have had gatherings of juvenile and adults swallows, occasionally up to 35 on some very rare days before swooping off over the fields but often the skies have been empty and their twitterings absent.

This may just be a dip and there will be a bounce back next year but for now I remain "Worried of Moor Lane."

September

However, Sandra's moth count on a warm night produced one of the highest readings yet and many new species not recorded on previous counts. Our neighbour's swallows fledged well. All the wasps in the area seem to have made a nest in the Vicar's roof!! And, the warm and wet September have produced a more noticeable mass of insects from the smallest flies on the Autumn Hawkbit in the verges to the emergence of bumbling crane flies and subsequent interest of many corvids.

We've seen a few token butterflies on the later purple buddleia and some large and small white managed to lay eggs on my beautiful kale ... To top it all this has been the best blackberry year for as long as I've lived in Sawley, something must have pollinated the brambles – maybe all those night flying moths, although we've only had a few bats.

Nature, I'll never understand it but never underestimate it either.

Sawley Moor Lane Diary

October

I was raking up Cherry leaves yesterday and it doesn't seem any time at all since I was smiling at the bows covered in white blossom and holding such promise. How mixed the results of that promise has been – no great bee buzzing days, carpet blossom fall, some fruits, lovely leaves into a very brief autumn and now work for the rake and a feed for the leaf mould heap, with very good leaf mould underneath. As the tree closes down and goes into winter mode I wonder what next spring and summer will bring?

Rudbekia and Sedum Spectabile are giving cheery colour to the garden and in the Lane the wild Michaelmas Daisies are wilder and fuller and more merrily wild! The hanging baskets have looked lovely all summer, as have the flowering tubs throughout the village with everyone doing their bit. We'll have a winter project to replace many of the tubs and try to keep the village looking cheerful and optimistic all next year! Thank you to all who help.

There was a session of Defibrillator training and twenty people took part. We hope their new learned skills will not be needed but it is good to be well prepared

Remembrance Day at Picking Gill

Monday 11th November 2024

10.45

You are invited to gather at the memorial stone at Picking Gill

To mark the 125th anniversary of Remembrance Day and especially Leonard Watson, Mark Maude and Wilfred Wood from Sawley Parish who were killed serving in action during the War.

Please come to the stone for 10.45 for a short ceremony.

From the Parish Magazine November 1919

“ St Martin’s is the Anniversary of Armistice Day, and the great silence in which two minutes pause in thanks and remembrance to the glorious dead who died that England might live, has been observed with grateful prayer and praise. It was the King’s happy inspiration.”

Rev JAMES ENGLISH TORBETT, B.A.

SAWLEY FOOD BANK

DROP OFF POINT STILL OPEN at St Michael and All Angels Church porch

A collection/ drop off box remains in place in the porch of the church (open daily), for any donations of food, cleaning items, toiletries etc., The box is checked regularly and all the very generous donations are then taken to Bishop Thornton’s foodbank drop off point to be distributed by The Harrogate District Foodbank’s depot, to local people and families experiencing food poverty .

All donations, however small are gratefully received; from a can of beans to treats such as a box of chocolates or biscuits. Everyday toiletries are desperately needed; shampoo, deodorants, toothpaste & washing powder for example. A list of ‘needs’ are put up on their Facebook site weekly but any items are a lifeline to struggling families and individuals .

A huge THANK YOU to the kind souls that have been donating since January, it’s a joy to open the box and drop off the items knowing you’ve been instrumental in helping people ... our lovely village has a huge heart.
